This benefit is available to a student who: 1) is in years 1-7 of an Arts & Sciences doctoral program, 2) is fully funded, 3) has adopted a child who is under the age of 18, and 4) has finalized the adoption process within the past six months. This benefit provides a one-time reimbursement of up to $5,000 per adopted child for expenses incurred on or after the parent's first day of enrollment in GSAS. There is a limit of one reimbursement per adopted child, even if both parents are GSAS students. The adopted child may not be the child of the student's spouse or same-sex domestic partner. Read the full policy at gsas.columbia.edu/student-parents.
